(Title of Piece): Three Celebratory Poems from Collection of Japanese Poems Ancient and Modern

Caption 1

Three Celebratory Poems from Collection of Japanese Poems Ancient and Modern

A Glimpse into the Aesthetics of the Heian Court through Paper, Calligraphy, and Poetry

Caption 2

From right to left: poems 343, 347, and 348.

Caption 3

Detail of poem 343 written in chirashigaki, or "scattered writing."

Caption 4

Detail of the double-rhombus and floral vine pattern.

Caption 5

The three poems were originally one section of a larger handscroll.

Caption 6

The poems were mounted on a hanging scroll.