Holding of the 3rd Meeting of the “Council for International Development of Aviation Infrastructure”

Ministry of Land, Infrastructure, Transport and Tourism (MLIT) has established the “Council for International Development of Aviation Infrastructure” to actively promote the Japanese style aviation infrastructure abroad through public-private partnerships (PPP) and has been taking various actions, including business matching services taking advantage of visit overseas missions and intergovernmental meetings.

Under the current circumstances, the government of Japan needs to take more flexible actions to encourage Japanese private companies to win a bid in this particular market. This is to inform you that the third Council meeting will be held as shown below to review Japan’s efforts in the past and exchange views on action plans for the future.
