

ATS flight information officer

Job description

① Flight Operation and Information Service

- Providing of aeronautical information
- Coordination of airport slots
- ATS MSG handling (including SAT service)
- Flight watch, Search and rescue coordination
- Ramp Inspection
- Broadcast service (ATIS)

② Aeronautical Mobile Communication and Information Service

- Information services needed for the aircraft operation
- Transfer of ATC messages between the aircraft and ATC units
- Acceptance and provision of PIREPs
- Report on positions and flight plan change etc, by VFR Flights
- Other communication services which are needed for the safe operation of the aircraft

③ Aerodrome Operation and Information Service

- Coordination of aircraft stands
- Inspections of runways, taxiways and aprons
- Safety management in aerodrome restricted area
- Adopting measures to minimize the likelihood of collisions between wildlife (birds and animals) and aircraft

