Kawasaki Halloween

"Kawasaki Halloween" draws not only domestic but also overseas attention. Of particular note is the costumed "Halloween Parade," one of the largest of its kind in Japan. The superbly costumed participants proceeding down the main streets near Kawasaki Station can be quite a sight to see. With more than 110,000 spectators also packing the streets every year, the entire town is enveloped in the energy of Halloween.

Kawasaki City Tamagawa Fireworks Festival

Started in 1929, the historic fireworks is a very popular summertime event in Kawasaki. After changing the venue from Rokugo Bridge to Tamagawa Bridge, we have been holding the event near Futako Bridge since 1975. Recently we have been sharing the fireworks with neighboring Setagaya-ku, making it more spectacular.
