

Interim Report
by Planning Section

(Provisional translation)

November 2006

Planning Section, National Land Council

Contents

Interim Report by Planning Section .....	1
Referential materials .....	43
Diagram of “Interim Report by Planning Section” .....	44
Summary of “Interim Report by Planning Section” .....	45
Referential Graphic Charts of “Interim Report by Planning Section” .....	55
Study Process at the Planning Section of the National Land Council .....	75

Contents

Foreword .....	3
1. Trend of the Times and Issues in National Land Policies .....	3
(1) Great changes in the socioeconomic situation.....	4
① Decreasing population and the rapidly aging society.....	4
② Progress of globalization and economic development of East Asia.....	4
③ Advance in information and communication technology.....	5
(2) Changes and diversification of the public’s sense of value.....	6
① Rising national awareness of safety and security, environment, beauty, and culture.....	6
② Diversification of lifestyle, growth of entities performing the role of “the public”.....	6
(3) National land situation.....	7
① Current status of unipolar, uniaxial national land structure.....	7
② Progress in the environment for regional independence and increase of problems beyond prefectural boundaries.....	8
③ Necessity of restructuring ideal relationship between people and national land on the basis of the decreasing population.....	8
2. New National Land Image .....	9
(1) Direction of the development of national land structure.....	9
(2) Support for the promotion of independence of wide-area blocs.....	10
3. Aims of the Plan and Strategic Efforts .....	11
(1) Realization of a seamless Asia.....	12
① Strengthening Japanese industries under an industrial structure based on an East Asian network.....	13
② Promotion of exchanges and cooperation with East Asia.....	14
③ Creation of national land infrastructure to support a seamless Asia.....	14
(2) Creation of sustainable areas.....	17
① Formation of sustainable and comfortable urban areas.....	17
② Revitalization of industries by making use of regional resources.....	20
③ Formation of beautiful and comfortable rural areas and new development of the agriculture, forestry and fisheries industry.....	21
④ Promotion of invitation and relocation of people to regions and inter-regional exchanges and cooperation.....	23
(3) Creation of disaster-resistant and flexible national land.....	24
① Promotion of disaster countermeasures also focused on disaster damage reduction ...	25
② Renovation of the national land structure to make it disaster resistant.....	26

(4) Management and nourishment of a beautiful national land.....	27
① Formation of properly managed national land focused on cycling and symbiosis.....	27
② Utilization of national land and management of hydrological cycle systems in river basins .....	29
③ Promotion of efforts toward “national management of national land” .....	30
④ Comprehensive use and conservation of ocean and coastal areas.....	30
(5) Regional development by a “new public” (cross-cutting perspective).....	32
① System for regional development based on the axis of a “new public” .....	32
② Management of national land infrastructures by diverse entities .....	33
③ Regional development through self-help efforts focused on the initiatives and activities of diverse private entities.....	34
4. Realization of the Plan .....	36
(1) Direction of national land infrastructure investment .....	36
(2) Improvement/utilization of national land information and monitoring of plans .....	38
(3) Inspection of various systems related to the plan .....	39
5. Formulation of National Land-Use Plans .....	39
Conclusion .....	40