

Ministry of Land, Infrastructure and Transport

Regional Centre for Mapping of Resources for Development (RCMRD)
Kasarani Road, P.O. Box 18118 Nairobi, Kenya
25-28 August 2003

Program of Global Mapping Seminar in Nairobi (confirmed)

25 August 2003

09:30 Registration

09:45 Call to Order

Hiroshi Une, JICA expert to Survey of Kenya

The program for the day was an open workshop, allowing the participation of outsiders.

10:00 Opening

Otohiko Shimizu, for Hiromichi Maruyama, Secretary General of the International Steering Committee for Global Mapping (ISCGM)

Wilber K. Ottichilo, Director General of RCMRD

H.E. Yosuke Tsuruho, Japanese Parliamentary Secretary for Land, Infrastructure and Transport

10:30 Break

11:00 Outline on of the Seminar

Toru Nagayama, Chief Coordinator of Global Mapping Partnership Program (GMPP)

Wilber K. Otichilo, Director General of RCMRD, took the role of facilitator for the following sessions

11:20 Recent Development of Global Mapping Project

Toru Nagayama, GMPP: Recent Global Mapping Development and ISCGM Activities

Haggai Nyapola, Chair UN-CODI GEO: Implementation of Global Mapping in African Context

12:30 Luncheon Program

At ICIPE cafeteria hosted by the Organizers

14:00 Initiatives and Activities for Spatial Data Infrastructure Development.

Chukwudozie Ezigbalike, CODI secretariat of UNECA: Activities of UNCODI-GEO

Wilber K. Ottichilo, Director General of RCMRD: Capacity Building Efforts of RCMRD

Kate Lance, GSDI Secretariat: GSDI and USAID supported geo-spatial initiatives in Africa

*Craig von Hagen, FAO: Further Development of Africover
Toru Nagayama, Chief Coordinator of GMPP: Activities of GMPP*

15:40 Break

16:00 Interactive Panel: -Further Strengthening Partnerships-
Moderated by Dr. Ottichilo, the panelists, speakers of the previous session, conducted a panel discussion with the participation of the audiences. This session focused on exploring ideas and opinions for further promotion of partnerships Global Mapping, relevant SDI activities and partnerships among them.

17:00 Adjourn

26 August 2003

09:00 Country Presentations

Participants were invited to make country presentations. The theme of the presentation were the status of Global Mapping; implementation of building NSDI including institutional matters; and prospects and needs in geographic information fields. This session was regarded as the basis for following contents of the program.

The speakers with longer presentation were:

Desire Adama Compaore, Burkina Faso; Joseph Abu Baiden, Ghana; Marc Ramananirina Ranjalahy, Madagascar; Anastazia Nil Banda, Zambia; Hailu Bahre Shifun, Ethiopia:

The speakers with shorter presentation were:

Moswela Martyr Dintweng, Botswana; Hemoryck Ochieng Arodi, Kenya; Khopotso Ntlaloe, Lesotho; Earl Mkondo Moyo, Malawi; Yannupdutt Bhoobeechun, Mauritius; Ricard Rafael Candido, Mozambique; Rachel Ndemweta Haimene, Namibia; Michel Shango, Rwanda; Kenneth Musa Masuku, Swaziland; Agnes Mkama, Tanzania; Crispin Emiriat Okitela, Uganda; and Lloyd Goliath, Zimbabwe.

10:30 Break

11:00 Country Presentations, Continued.

12:00 Lunch Break

13:30 Role of Global Mapping in spatial data policy

*Chukwudozie Ezigbalike, CODI secretariat UNECA: African Perspective for SDI
Kate Lance GSDI secretariat: The concepts of SDI*

16:00 Break

16:30 Role of Global Mapping in spatial data policy, continued

Wilber K. Ottichilo: Director of Surveys of SOK: Development of Kenyan SDI

17:20Adjourn

27 August 2003

09:00 Application of Global Maps
Ambrose Oroda, RCMRD: Application study at RCMRD in remote sensing and mapping field

10:00 Break

10:30 Application of Global Maps, continued
Craig von Hagen, FAO: Africover and its Application
Toru Nagayama, GMPP: Application of Global Maps

12:30 Lunch Break

14:00 Stock-taking discussion on Global Mapping and Spatial Data Infrastructure

15:30 Break

16:00 Application of Global Maps
Meshack Nyabenge ILRI: GIS application for livestock management

17:30 Adjourn

28 August 2003

09:00 Technical Methods and Challenges of Global Mapping
Hiroshi Une, JICA expert to Survey of Kenya: Global Map data specification and Japanese cooperation activities in mapping and survey field
Carmelle J. Cote, Environmental Systems Research Institute (ESRI) Inc.: Commitments of ESRI for supporting Global Mapping

10:30 Break

11:00 Technical Methods and Challenges of Global Mapping, continued
Tsuneaki Shimoji, Geographical Survey Institute of Japan: ISO19100 series and the importance of metadata and its development

12:30 Lunch Break

14:00 Technical Methods and Challenges of Global Mapping, continued
Short Tour of RCMRD
RCMRD staff: Activities of RCMRD for building Spatial Data Infrastructure

16:00 Break

16:30 Wrap-up
Seminar Evaluation was conducted under the moderation by Toru Nagayama, GMPP.

17:00 End of the Seminar

18:30 Certificate Awarding Ceremony and Farewell Party for GMPP assisted Participants,
Boulevard Hotel, Nairobi

The certificate awarding for the participants of Third Country course was held in the occasion of the closing ceremony of Course at Kenya Institute of Surveying and Mapping (KISM), 29 August 2003.