

Index

Introduction	1
Part 1. Issues and Direction for Administration of MLIT at the Beginning of the 21st Century	3
Chapter 1. The Birth of the Ministry of Land, Infrastructure and Transport	3
Chapter 2. Issues for Administration of MLIT	6
Section 1. Development of Japan's Postwar Economic Society and Contribution of Administration of Land, Infrastructure, and Transport	6
Section 2. The Negative legacy of the 20th Century	12
Section 3. New Issues That Have Surfaced in Recent Years.	16
Chapter 3. Reform of MLIT Policy in the 21st Century	21
Section 1. Reform of Public Works	21
Section 2. Conversion to 21st Century-Style Transportation Policy	29
Section 3. Reform of Administrative Methods Addressing New Trends	31
Part 2 Addressing Problems in the Land, Infrastructure and Transport Sectors	33
Chapter 1. Urban Renaissance	33
Chapter 2. Construction of Extended, International Transportation Networks & Promotion of Exchanges in Tourism	38
Chapter 3. Creation of Unique and Beautiful Local Communities and National Land	43
Chapter 4. Measures to Realize Environment-Friendly Society	45
Chapter 5. Promotion of Comfortable Living to Support Better Quality of Life and Promotion of Recreation Activity	49
Chapter 6. Securing Safety	53
Chapter 7. Correspondence to Society of Fewer Children and Increasing people of Advanced Age	58
Chapter 8. Promotion of IT Revolution	60
Chapter 9. Revitalization and Activation of Industry	62
Chapter 10. Promotion of Logistics Measures That Contribute to Reinforcement of Japan's International Competitiveness	65
Chapter 11. Development of International Measures Interconnected with Globalization	69
Chapter 12. Technological Research & Development Supporting the 21st Century	71