Shinminato Hikiyama Festival

By Public Transport

Topics

The Shinminato Hikiyama Festival is one of the autumn grand festivals of Hojozo Hachimangu Shrine. Accompanied by the melodies of Japanese flutes and taiko drums, 13 festival floats, the most in the prefecture, parade through the streets to the chants of "lyassaa, lyassaa!" By day, the floats are vibrant, "Hanayama (Flower floats)", while at night, they become illuminated "Chochin-yama (Lantern floats)". The sight of the magnificent 13 floats lined up in procession, navigating narrow corners with tight turns, is truly breathtaking. The simultaneous lighting of lanterns in Shinminato and the enchanting reflection of the Chochin-yama on the Uchikawa river is a must see.
