Tataki (fried fish cake)

Surimi of fish such as mackerel scad, horse mackerel and other fish caught in the waters near the islands and then mixed with seasonings into a paste are known as tataki on Niijima. Becaause baking soda is also mixed into the paste, it expands with heat, creating a unique tenderness and juiciness. Not only is tataki great with miso soup, the tataki-age, fried in oil is also an exquisite dish that visitors can enjoy.
