Shinminato Hikiyama Festival

By Public Transport

Topics

Held annually in Autumn, the Shinminato Hikiyama Festival is the grand event of Hojoku Hachiman Shrine. It has been nominated to UNESCO as an intangible cultural heritage property of Japan. The parade includes 13 floats and is the largest Hikiyama festival in Toyama. The floats are pulled around the Shinminato area beautifully decorated as flowers by day and lanterns by night. Although the origins of the festival are unclear, the first parade is said to have started in Furushinmachi in 1650. The majestic sight of these 13 Hikiyama floats being bravely driven around the area's narrow streets as the participants chant "Isasa, Iyasa" is truly a spectacular sight.
