Hiroshima-style Okonomiyaki

By Public Transport

Dining

Okonomiyaki is Soul food in Hiroshima. It has its roots in a pre-war children's snack of a water-flour mixture grilled on an iron hot plate with toppings including spring onion. After the war this snack was treasured as a staple food when rice could not be obtained. As recovery progressed, cabbage, noodles, eggs and other ingredients were added to make the current style of Okonomiyaki. There are more than 900 Okonomiyaki restaurants in the Hiroshima city.
