

Ofunato Kaisen-don: Seafood Rice-bowl

By Foot

Dining

Many fish are caught and unloaded throughout the year at Ofunato Port. This is because Ofunato is part of the Sanriku coast, where the Japan Current and Kurile Current meet, making it one of the largest fishing grounds in the world. The Ofunato Port also has a thriving aquaculture industry. Depending on the season, you can enjoy an array of seafood, such as Abalone, Oysters, Sea Urchin, Pacific saury, Salmon and Tuna.

Ofunato Pacific Saury

By Foot

Dining

Ofunato Port has the largest catch of Pacific saury in all of Honshu. The scrumptious fish is in its peak season in autumn. To welcome visitors to the port, cooks will charcoal grill Pacific saury and give it out for free, when it's the right season. Ofunato is also famous for Pacific Saury Ramen; depending on the restaurant, the saury is used as a main topping, or in making the broth.

Central Downtown Area (Kyassen Ofunato, and more)

By Foot

Shopping

The central shopping area of Ofunato is located right next to the port. The shops are brought together by the concept of the sea, and their variety allows visitors to enjoy, play, eat and connect with one another. The area is lively with locals, and various events held throughout the year. Furthermore, Saito Seika, which makes the famous confectionary, the Kamamo no Tamago, has its main shop in this area: the Kamome Terrace. There, visitors can enjoy shopping for Japanese sweets, cakes and western sweets, and they can even enjoy unique activities such as making their own Kamome no Tamago sweets.

Hiraizumi World Cultural Heritage Site

By Public TransportMain Attractions

Hiraizumi has many pristine examples of Pure Land Buddhism, such as the Chuson-ji Temple and the Motsu-ji Temple Garden. As part of their "Pure Land" ideology, ancient people created temples and gardens in harmony with nature, incorporating untouched rivers and mountains into their design. They were able to make their ideal world of the "Pure Land", where the temples and gardens were one with the surrounding nature. It's said that the ideal world represented in Hiraizumi's philosophy can only be found in Hiraizumi.

The Miracle Lone Pine Tree (Rikuzentakata City)

By Public Transport

Topics

In the Great East Japan Earthquake and tsunami of 2011, the pine forest of 70,000 trees, which had protected Rikuzentakata City from tsunamis in the past, was almost completely washed away. The Miracle Lone Pine Tree, however, was not. The Takata Pine Forest Memorial Park is established around the Miracle Lone Pine Tree, which serves as a symbol for recovery. Inside the park, there is the Iwate Tsunami Memorial Museum and the Takata Roadside Station. The park is a place to remember and honor the victims, while recording the disaster and conveying the lessons learnt to future generations. It is a place to let the world know the region's strong will to recover.

San Andres Park

By Foot

This park is about a 5-minute walk from Ofunato Port. From the viewing deck at the park, you can see a gorgeous view of the port. The park was named as the San Andres Park due to how, in 1611, a delegation from Spain came and visited Ofunato Port. Because their visit happened to fall on Saint Andrew's Day, they named Ofunato Port as "San Andres" (Saint Andrew in Spanish).
