

Dr.-Ing Rattikarn Khambud

Thailand

Urban Planner, National and Regional Planning Bureau, Department of Public Works and Town & Country Planning. Ministry of Interior.

Dr. Rattikarn Khambud She is responsible for National Spatial Planning, Urban-Rural Development Policy and Environment-Water Management. Previously, she had worked in Specific Plan Division with involved in Land Use Planning, Zoning, Urban Design and Urban Conservation Area. Her expertise is in Disaster Flood Risk Management, Design of Blue-Green Infrastructure and Urban Agriculture. She is also sharing her experience in lecture at Technical University of Munich(TUM) in field of Land Management and Geospatial Science.

Experience Study, internship and employment

- 2018 – Present Urban planner/National spatial planner for the Royal Thai Government at the Department of Public works and Town & Country planning.
- 2014 – 2017 Doctoral Program at the Technical University of Munich (TUM), Faculty Geodesy, Germany, with the support of the Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst e.V. (DAAD) scholarship.
- 2012 – 2014 Doctoral Candidate Promotion: Long-Distance Study at the Chair of Geodesy. Faculty of Civil, Geo and Environmental Engineering.
- 2012 – 2014 City planner (Specific Plan Division) for the Royal Thai Government at the Ministry on Interior in the Department of Public works and Town & Country Planning.

- 2011 Voluntary internship (September – October) in the Division for Environmental and Economic Development at The United Nations (UNESCAP), Bangkok, Thailand.
- 2011 Voluntary internship (March – April) at the Bavarian Environment Agency (LfU), Bavaria, Germany.
- 2010 – 2012 Master degree in Land Management and Land Tenure at the Technical University of Munich (TUM) with the support of the Deutschen Akademischen Austauschdienst e.V. (DAAD), Munich, Germany.
- 2008 Training Program of the Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA) on the topic of “Comprehensive city Planning”, Tokyo, Japan.
- 2006 City& Town planner for the Royal Thai government at the Department of Public works and Town & Country planning. (Specific Plan Division)
- 2001 – 2005 Master degree in Urban and Environmental Planning at the King Mongkut's Institute of Technology Ladkrabang (KMITL), Bangkok, Thailand.
- 1996 – 2001 Bachelor degree in Soil Science at the King Mongkut's Institute of Technology Ladkrabang (KMITL), Bangkok, Thailand.