

1. Project name: Implementing utility system served for smart tourism

2. City: Đà Nẵng

3. Areas of research: A, E

A) Research on master plan (M / P)

With the purpose of developing a master plan for a smart city or a part of the objectives including orientation, comprehensive plan and separate projects.

E) Conduct experiment

With the purpose of confirming the capacity applying the solution or technology specifically for smart city project with the support from Japanese solution supplier.

4. Reasons for project (Providing information of the project relating to the following details)

- The current situation of project smart city at the target city: There is no utility system for tourists.

- The development policy of government authority/city about the project and objective smart city: The city issued the Scheme of developing smart city in Danang from 2018-2025, with an orientation to 2030.

- Purposes (short-term objectives)

Support service using solar energy for tourists and local people to charge the phone, access free wifi, recharge money, search for tourism information, request urgent support such as security, hospital, rescue, IoT, robot system to provide tourism information... Support service for tourists applying IoT.

- Objectives (long-term objectives) of the research or project: Develop Danang as a smart tourism city.