

Hamaguchi Essay Contest 2023

This program is an activity supported by Ministry of Land, Infrastructure and Tourism “MLIT”, Japan.*

Who is Hamaguchi Goryo?

Hamaguchi Goryo was born on a little village where currently is Hirogawa town, Wakayama Prefecture. When the large tsunami resulting from the Ansei Nankai Earthquake of 1854 struck the village, he guided his fellow villagers to evacuate to higher ground by “Inamura-no-hi” (setting fire to his precious sheaves of rice), his whole year's harvest, as a signal of warning. His post-disaster contributions such as building shelters for victims and breakwater apparently minimized post-tsunami damage.
