The basic concept of the plan is the same with the Nakahama plan.

Wave barriers urgently needs to be restored up to the height that protects the area from high waves, because important public facilities for local community restoration is in the flooded area.

Project plan should also be coordinated with prefectures after discussions with relevant bodies.

The basic concept of the plan is the same with the Nakahama plan.

Wave barriers urgently needs to be restored up to the height that protects the area from high waves, because important public facilities for local community restoration is in the flooded area.