

National Park Volunteers

Park volunteers throughout Japan give their time to improve and preserve the national parks. The volunteers are members of the public who are registered with the Ministry of the Environment. The park volunteer system at Nikko dates from 1985. The volunteers work to help visitors to better understand and enjoy this precious natural environment.