

While not as steep as its sister slope Aobayama Dai-ichi, this piste still packs a punch and is recommended for serious skiers up for a challenge. But before you push off, take a minute to savor the scenery spread before you: a panoramic view of the Kusatsu Onsen Hot Spring District. You may even detect the subtle scent of sulfur drifting down from the volcanic peaks, a reminder of the soothing hot springs that await below.

Level: Intermediate to advanced

Course length: 360 meters

Average slope degree: 15 degrees

Maximum slope degree: 23 degrees