

Niomon, Guardian Kings Gate

Important Cultural Property

The four fierce guardian deities enshrined in this massive, eight-pillar gate protect the temple grounds from evil. Built in 1831, the design, materials, and carvings used in the gate are typical of early-modern temple architecture. The massive lantern in the center is made of gunmetal and weighs 800 kg.