

Goshuin (Seal Stamp) Tour

Many Japanese people have a book to record their visits to temples and shrines. You can receive proof of your visit with a seal (goshuin in Japanese). At Shinshoji, you can collect different seals at each of the Daihondo (Great Main Hall), Komyodo, Shakado, Shusse Inari Shrine, and Heiwa Daito (Great Peace Pagoda), Ioden (Healing Buddha Hall). A special seal-collection book called Goshuincho makes a great memory of your visit to take home.
