

The Old Flour Mill

The Flour Mill was first introduced to this region by Father de Rotz (1840–1914). It was used to create white flour for macaroni and somen noodles. Initially it had been built by the river but was later moved to the grounds of the Aid Center.