

The Pharmacy

Since there was no hospital in Sotome, Father de Rotz (1840–1914) installed a clinic and pharmacy at the Aid Center. This building became The Pharmacy. Although he was not a qualified pharmacist, the medicines de Rotz prepared were said to be very effective.