

Ono Church (Important Cultural Property of Japan)

This church was designed by Father de Rotz (1840–1914) for his followers who came from twenty-six different families. It is located at Ono-go, deep in the mountains and overlooking the Goto Sea. The priest at this church was also the priest at Shitsu Church.