

Kurosaki Church

Construction was carried out under the guidance of Father de Rotz (1840–1914), and the bricks were laid by his followers, as their greatest gesture of service and sacrifice.