

Junjō-kan (Important Cultural Property)

Junjō-kan is a hall within Sanbō-in. It was originally built on the mountainside to hold the 1598 Cherry Viewing Banquet, and was later moved to Sanbō-in.

The sliding door panels of the building are decorated with paintings of cherry blossoms and maple leaves by Hamada Taisuke (b. 1932), a contemporary painter of landscapes. These works were completed in 1989.
