

Kannondo Hall

The Kannondo Hall is located at the western edge of the gardens. On the altar inside stands a centuries-old wooden statue representing Kannon, the bodhisattva of compassion. The Kannondo previously functioned as Saihoji's main hall of worship until the construction of the Sairaido in 1969.