

Tile Marked with a Cross

One of the tiles on the gable of this gatehouse is decorated with a cross. Some believe it to be connected to Kuroda Kanbei (1546–1604), a Christian warlord who had a fortress at Himeji before the current castle was built. The tile's actual provenance remains a mystery.