

Old Public Hall of Hakodate Ward and Hakodate Orthodox Church Area

The area surrounding Hakodate Orthodox Church and the Old Public Hall of Hakodate Ward once prospered as the city's political and cultural center. It still has many Western-style public buildings and religious structures that testify to the foreign cultures which shaped the community. Private residences in the area showcase Japanese, Western, and mixed architectural styles.