

Tab 1

1910 to World War II

During this initial phase, the Hakodate Chamber of Commerce was located in the Old Public Hall, which was the city's only venue for official ceremonies and other public events. It also hosted the Crown Prince's visit in 1911. When the Chamber of Commerce moved, the Old Public Hall became a venue for concerts and other events.