

Second period

Around 1922, the Old Public Hall was painted ochre and white. Sometime between 1945 and 1955, the carriage porches and decorative roof elements were dismantled. The Old Public Hall's appearance changed most dramatically during this period.