

Third period

After the Old Public Hall was reopened for use by the citizens of the town, the carriage porches were restored as part of a preservation effort prior to the building's designation as an Important Cultural Property. The Old Public Hall was painted pink and white in 1959.