

Fourth period

In the late 1980s, the Old Public Hall was restored to its original 1911 appearance (Renovations in the Showa era (1980-1982)). The return of the original blue-grey and yellow paint scheme sparked debate among residents who had become accustomed to its pink and white colors.