

The Bungakusho

Opposite the school's main entrance, on the far side of the courtyard, is the Bungakusho. As the largest building on the campus, the Bungakusho has classrooms, kitchen facilities, administrative offices, and a room reserved for special guests. The small building behind the Bungakusho is a storehouse, used to keep textbooks and other important books and documents safe from, among other things, fire.