

Urabandai in Spring

Spring arrives in Urabandai between the end of April and early May, a little later than most of the country. One of the most spectacular spots to witness the changing of the season is at Lake Hibara. In spring, take a boat out to one of its small islets, where cherry trees flourish with blossoms.