

Hakusan Raicho-so

Located close to the Hakusan Murodo lodges, Raicho-so provides six private rooms for visitors and is open from July 1 until early October. Note that there are no cooking facilities in the lodge, and stoves and other sources of fire are prohibited.

Lights are turned off at 8:30 p.m. until August 31, and at 8:00 p.m. from September 1 onward.

There are six rooms on the second floor: three rooms accommodating three guests each, and three larger rooms for groups of four. Each room has a television and a heater.

Guests may use the shared facilities on the first floor; there are pay toilets, two coin-operated showers, a laundry room and drying room. There is also a lounge with a television, massage chairs and Internet connection.

* The pay toilets and coin-operated showers may not be available; in this case, the relevant fees will be deducted from the total cost.
