

Mt. Oyama

At 237 meters, this is the highest elevation on any of the islands around Toba. It is located roughly an hour and a half on foot from the port at the midway point of a longer hiking trail that circles part of the island. The summit offers fine views of Toba port, neighboring islands, and Mt. Aominesan and Mt. Asamagatake on the Shima Peninsula.