

Mt. Yahazudake

Mt. Yahazudake's modest height makes it a beginner-friendly hike for visitors who want to enjoy panoramic views of Mt. Kaimon and the surrounding area. The mountain is located on the east side of Sebira Park in Sakaimachi, near the southernmost tip of the Satsuma Peninsula. On the peak you will find a mass of unusual rock formations that bear a striking resemblance to everyday objects and historical figures.