Michi no Eki Shikaoi Roadside Station

Sturgeon and souvenirs

This rest area in downtown Shikaoi sells local produce and a range of souvenirs, including regional crafts such as Shikaoi-yaki pottery and jewelry made from local igneous rock. Near the entrance is a tank with live sturgeon, which are farmed locally and served in select restaurants around town.

Michi no Eki Urimaku Roadside Station

A place for horse-lovers

Located next to a horse-riding park on the outskirts of Shikaoi, Michi no Eki Urimaku is themed around horses. The shop sells a range of souvenirs, including horse figurines and toys, and there is a counter for booking horse-riding sessions held at the adjacent Shikaoi Riding Park. These are available to riders of all ages and skill levels and range from gentle paddock rides to full lessons that include horse grooming.
